

CELESTIAL Celestial Beta Version Tutorial

CELESTIAL

Celestial is a highly free world.

The player can either choose to play individually or get into a legion. Legion is the best shelter for the players and there are federations above it that are made up of several legions. Strong federations occupy most of the resources in the galaxy. Form your federation or defeat and replace the others to emerge your own! Please remember, always collaborate with your allies no matter what happens, you should explore the galaxy treasures and defend the enemy together, as a team!

1. Method to get the battleship - Moore Chest

In short, Moore Chest is a mystery box, and the players can get battleships by opening it. The players can get the Moore Chest by directly exchanging it with x Energy Crystals and the Energy Crystals also can be bought from CherrySwap.

In Mega Factory, exchange the Moore Chest with Energy Crystals and open it. If you do not have Energy Crystals. click 'Buy Energy Crystal' on the left.

In the red box, you will find the data information of your battleship. The applicable scenarios of each battleship are different, so it is beneficial for you to understand each battleship and its feature as it will bring you a huge amount of profit in later explorations.

2. Method to get the battleship - Energy Farming

Press the amount of stake in the red box and then click ‘Confirm to Stake’ .

The green box displays a series of mining information like APY.

Press the yellow circle to get xCelt so the mining rate will be increased.

After obtaining xCelt, click ‘stake’ to throw the xCelt to accelerate the mining speed of the chosen mineral resource.

The yellow box displays your bonus rate - three times maximum who hold xCelt will get more benefits in subsequent versions.

In addition to direct purchase, you can also stake USDT and other stable coins to mine Energy Crystals.

In ‘Energy Farming’ , select the appropriate minerals according to the type of tokens you would like to pledge and click.

Celt staked at different times will get different amounts of xCelt. Players

Enter the amount you want to stake, then pick a timeframe, system will automatically calculate the number of xCelt you will gain.

The yellow box indicates the remaining time of your pledged xCelt.

3. Usage of battleship/salvaging

Once you get the battleship, you can start your journey exploring the galaxy. Firstly, select your cluster, only the OEC cluster will be opened in the current version. In the follow-up version, we will launch the collection of other galaxies, and the starwar will follow. Don't waste a second to improve the power of your battleships!

After entering the galaxy, choose the planet you wish to occupy and salvaging. The current version did not launch the legion function, and all the planets are not occupied. You could choose freely the resource you wish to mine for your battleship.

Pick carefully which mineral you would like to salvaging, all battleship has different prefer, pay attention the message in the blue column: such as apy etc.

3. Usage of battleship/salvaging

The red box displays the level of your battleship, select the appropriate battleship and then click ‘stake’ , informs the number of battleships dispatched, where the 3 indicates the maximum battleships can be dispatched.

You now have experienced the whole process of the beta version. The battleship is the basic foundation of your galaxy journey.

Powerful battleships will bring you a lot of profit in the subsequent legion wars.

Build your own army, distribute the benefits reasonably, and make the army indestructible!

4: Personal storage

In the following steps, we will gradually upload the legion, plunder system, and some kind of offline activity.
